OTHER INSTRUCTORS:

Village Club may award independent instructors teaching privileges at VC. Any instructor with Teaching Privileges at VC sets their own fee and must pay the per rider arena/facilities fee for each lesson taught and/or each training ride or un-mounted training session that utilizes VC facilities and/or arenas, including round pen. Independent instructors must provide adequate professional liability insurance naming VC as additionally insured, sign the appropriate Village Club liability release and must make arrangements in advance with GM for arena use time.

Currently there are 2 independent instructors with teaching privileges at the Village Club. Members contact the independent instructor and pay the agreed upon fee directly to the instructor. Lessons with independent instructors are not billed to the member's account.
